

LEADERSHIP IS INFLUENCE

When facing persistent, resistant challenges, leaders often surrender to poor results or invest in change efforts that waste time and resources. And yet it's possible to influence behavior with surprisingly predictable success.

For the past thirty years, we've studied leaders with a proven ability to influence rapid, profound and sustainable change. And here's what we know: human behavior is grounded in six sources of influence. Effective leaders know how to leverage and apply these sources to influence real results.

INFLUENCE IN ACTION

Influencer goes beyond corporate perks and charismatic personalities to teach a method for changing ingrained human behavior.

Leaders learn how to achieve better results by changing human habits that are extraordinarily difficult to alter—especially those that mire down teams and organizations. Drawing on the skills of the world's best change agents and five decades of social-science research, Influencer teaches why people do what they do and how to help them act differently.

The Influencer Model

Named The Change Management Model of the Year by MIT Sloan Management Review, Influencer gives organizational leaders senior, emerging, and even those without formal authority—a powerful and portable model for achieving rapid, measurable, and sustainable behavior change.

"The most important capacity you possess is your ability to influence behavior, that of yourself or others."

Joseph Grenny co-author of Influencer

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"The Influencer model provides that framework for securing organization-wide change. Not only do we use it, we also teach it to others, and that's because our business results and the culture of our organization prove it works. We trained our entire staff and certified eighteen people in Influencer so that we could share these same principles with our customers."

Rich Sheridan

CEO and Co-Founder of Menlo Innovations

"Several years ago, we started training Influencer in conjunction with a large culture change effort. This was a success and I have since trained teams to use Influencer as part of large projects that require behavior change."

Joe Hardell

Business Project Manager, Abbott Laboratories

"We use Influencer as a leadership development workshop and the language has permeated the organization. It is a practical application to influence or change behaviors and get mindshare on change initiatives."
